Between a detective story and a tale of mystery there is a great difference. A tale of mystery is a tale of mystery; its plot is in its mystery, its interest in the fact that being a mystery, in the suspension attending the reader's ignorance of the ~~so~~ dénou solution. Not so with the detective story. Here the plot is not only in the mystery, but also in the intellectual process by which the mystery is unraveled, the interest in the very same intellectual process, in its progressive resolution of the truth, ~~so~~ far more interesting than the other kind of dénouement.
