I should not have troubled you had I not {...}

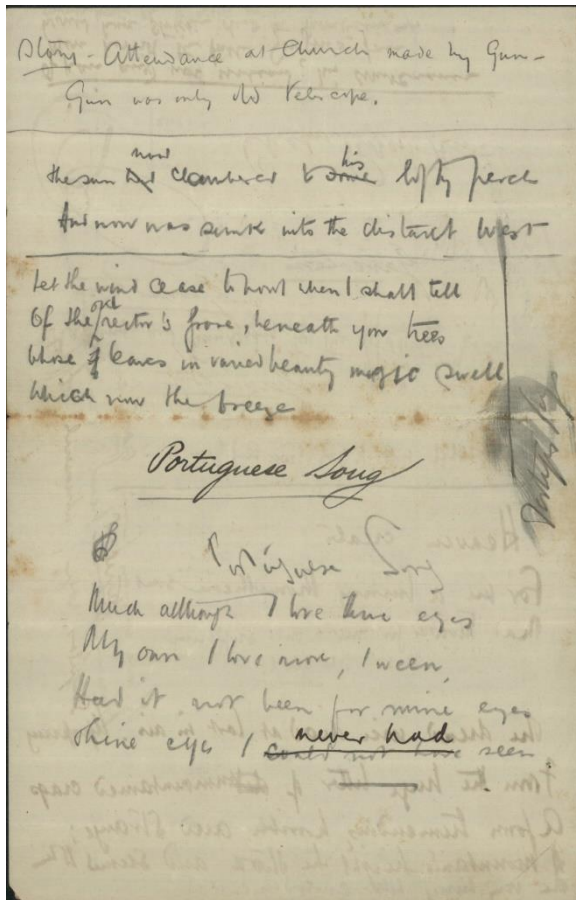

Heaven creates{...}
For me a burning Promethean soul
That thrives for mine own suffering

The dread voice died at last in air. Upspring
From the huge bitter of ~~des~~ unmountained crags
A form tremendous, horrible and strange;
A mountain's bright he stood and seemed to see
The very living well-embodiment

Of some enormous pain, giant fears
Horror ~~thought~~ or terror or heart craving pain
Stupendous rage, abnormal suffering
Of pain and woe unheard, his unknown
More horrid than felled Gorgon's face
Would have stricken dead the Promethean eyes
Though wanted the sights terrible {...}

Storm - Attendance at church made by |*Gun-gun| was only old †

The sun ~~had~~ now clambered to ~~some~~ his lofty perch
And now was sunk into the distant west

Let the wind cease to pass when I shall tell
Of the old rector's prose, beneath your trees
Whose leaves in varied beauty might swell
Which now the breeze {...}

Much although I love thine eyes
My own I love more, I ween,
Had it not been for mine eyes,
Thine eyes I ~~could not~~ have never had seen.
