

27²¹L⁴-1
One of these days I called upon my friend Dr. Nabos, in his consulting room, to obtain his opinion upon a headache that had been troubling me for a long time. As there were several people there whose turn would be before mine, I seized upon some illustrated papers of the fashionable kind and, according to my custom, commenced on half-attentive inspection of the illustrations. I went through them all in a vague way; but when I had set them down again on the table, their contents seized readily on my brain.

One of these days I called upon my friend Dr. Nabos, in his consulting room, to obtain his opinion upon a headache that had been troubling on for a long time. As these were several people then whose turn would be before mine, I seized upon some illustrated papers of the fashionable kind and, according to my custom, commenced on half-attentive inspection of the illustrations. I went through them all in a vague way; but when I had set them down again on the table, their contents seized readily on my brain.

What struck me most in these papers was the variety of poses in the portraits; which led me to some very disagreeable ~~pre~~ thoughts on the stupid variety of men.

DIREITOS ASSOCIADOS

O trabalho MODERNISMO - Arquivo Virtual da Geração de Orpheu de <https://modernismo.pt/> está licenciado com uma Licença Creative Commons - Atribuição-NãoComercial-CompartilhaIgual 4.0 Internacional.