

I mind me well standing there unobservant yet with the beauties around me sinking slowly into my heart. It was a day of in early summer, ~~bright~~ perhaps a day in late spring, at that human hour when the cool calmness of the morning and the modest heat of the day lend each a part to make pleasant our surroundings; it was that hour of the day when the morn is in truth full, when it is a pleasure to go from the temperate sun into the coolness of the leaves and more pleasant still to emerge from our leafy shelter ~~and~~ to bask in coolness in the warming light.
