Documents of Mental Decadence.

Delirium

The Picture.

In a saloon |that is a sleep|
Mine eyes did a picture meet,
And /One\ wondrously wise and woefully deep
And horribly complete.
A profound meaning more than tears
Are seen to give, and human fears,
And human madness and woe,
Come as a scent from that picture weird.

The name of the painter is ignored
And his purpose none do know.

Alexander Search.

August 1907.
