~~When I was~~ Younger I affected pain <sup>/woe un-glad\</sup>
And suffering as the pretence of a poet
And sorrow and my young heart did not know it
And melancholy and I was not sad

~~Alexander Search~~ Alexander Search

No man has ever suffered more than I
Not so ignobly, nor with such intense
Horror and sorrow, ~~from~~ nor I would fly
From mine own self. Great indeed
The grief that makes upon itself to fret
Is the grief that makes upon itself to fret
That /is\ the grief that striveth to forget
(And yet forgets not) |is true misery| -
I said "I ache", "I sound"
But never did I say this "I am mad".
