Napoleon.

This was the great /ruthless\ and ill-mighty arm
Who swayed the nations as a the wind a straw
His ~~w~~ will was {...} his plan was law
His charm

Is endless for the spirits with whom harm
When measured with boldness is a pleasure raw
For above the eagle is the great of claw
And beak, the symbol of cold conquerors warm.

Great? To be great is not to conquer men /man\
Or strive for metals, stones, shores. Great's a flower
Because the thoughts it raises are lead away

From ~~evi~~ vileness. ~~Thine own lust~~ Lust by greatness smallness
|ran| /Smallness did thy greatness end /pen\
~~Art great but as a symbol of~~ Being the symbol of the power of {...} powers
Thou art the lesson of a great decay.
