2.

Since thou hast made it ever our dire doom

~~We are thy slaves when resting~~ And makest us thy slaves even in the womb,

Thy slaves ~~from~~ till the dark limit of the tomb

As sure thy slaves as the poor ^{/Thy slaves more surely than\} things that creep.

3.

Since by some {...} dearer thou makest no bow

To thy Conventions, to thy faith and creeds,

And mad'st for us a Bible - none knows how

Where didst say "Men shall worship me and bow

~~And thou~~ † judges and burn us ~~upon~~ for our thoughts and deeds,

4.

Receive from me this book of insane verse

The first of many a tear and many a groan,

May it be to thee like a hinging cause

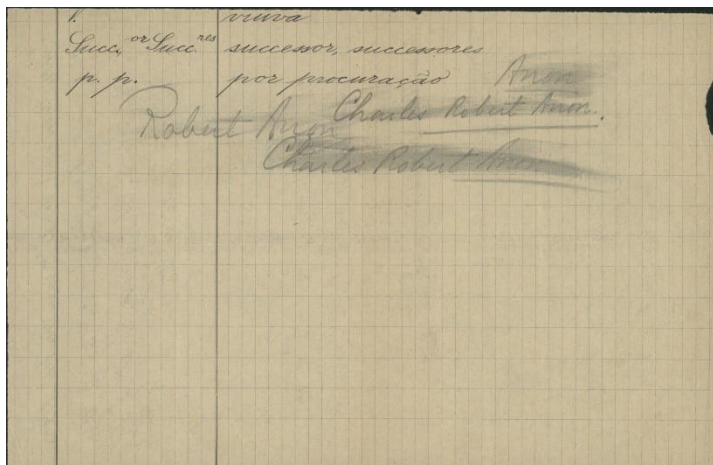

And aid sink Thee and thy {...} universe.

As drowns a useless cat a heavy stone.
