Oh my frail heart, that hast not learnt yet, ~~ye~~ To spin the small afflictions of this life
But feelest the latest one of the like to a knife
And feelest the kindest ~~and the~~ ^{therefore} none ~~not~~ the less.

Life has not taught thee love nor happiness
Nor any violent energy of strife
That shall save thee from brooding, from the ripe
A sadness of agonies and of distress.
